

On Saturday April 29th, the second runner for the Hyatt Powerplant Pump-Turbine Refurbishment project arrived at Mather Airport. The runner was flown from Canada on a Russian 124-100, the world's largest air freight carrier. Unloading the runner took nearly four hours. It will be transported by truck the final 100 miles of its journey to Oroville later this week.

